

myheart

Have you been diagnosed with a heart condition when you thought you were fit and healthy?

CRY's myheart network provides personalised help, support, and information to individuals who have been diagnosed with a potentially life-threatening inherited or congenital cardiac condition.

myheart have dedicated support resources for young people under the age of 35 who have been diagnosed with a cardiac condition, when they thought that they were fit and healthy.

FIND OUT MORE

